CASE NUMBER

INFORMATION:

Recently, St Joseph School and Church in the 300 Block of E Street have been the victim of vandalism and theft of property from the premises. The most recent event concerns the theft of a five-foot statute of St. Joseph. These criminal acts are being taken very seriously by the Police Department and are being viewed and investigated as hate crimes against the church. The Crescent City Police Department is asking anyone with information concerning these recent acts or anyone who was in the area and witnessed anything suspicious, come forward to assist Police. There are a variety of ways to report suspicious activity to the Police Department. Anyone with information regarding these incidents, are urged to contact the Crescent City Police Department at 707-464-2133, or Dispatch at 707-464-4191, and if you wish to remain anonymous please call the Crescent City Crime Tip Line at 707-218-4229 or leave a message at the Police Department website at www.crescentcity.org.
