The areas depicted with cross-hatching are within the original/retained coastal development permitting jurisdiction of the California Coastal Commission. The standard of review for the Coastal Commission's authorization of development within these areas is consistency with the policies and standards of Chapter 3 of the California Coastal Act. The associated land use plan or zoning designations relate only to the City's authorizations under other bodies of law (i.e., subdivisions, variances, use permits) and have no bearing on coastal development permitting in these areas.
